

ADM Investor Services, Inc.

Limited Power of Attorney (POA) Revocation Form

1. PURPOSE and INSTRUCTIONS

The purpose of this form is to revoke discretionary authority for the ADMIS account specified below. Once the POA is revoked, the specified account will be closed.

2. REVOKE POA. Identify Account and Existing Trader In the spaces below

Account Number _____ - _____ ("Account")

The undersigned requests to revoke _____ ("Agent") as power of attorney (POA) for the Account.

3. In revoking POA, Customer understands and agrees to the following - by initialing each point below:

_____ I have notified the Agent that the POA previously granted has been revoked, and instructed Agent how to handle liquidation of any open positions remaining in the Account.

_____ Upon receipt of this Form, ADMIS will, as soon as practicable, remove the POA from the Account as I have directed. The Account will be then closed.

_____ If there are open positions in the Account, the Account will be closed following the liquidation of all positions.

_____ I may not initiate any new positions in this Account. A new sub account must be opened if I want to continue to trade a self-directed account or appoint a new Authorized Trader (POA) to trade on my behalf.

Customer Acknowledgement

X _____

X _____

Authorized Signer/Account Owner

Authorized Signer/Account Owner

Date: _____

Date: _____

BROKER ATTESTATION

The undersigned broker confirms that upon receipt of this revocation of POA by customer, s/he has:

i) notified the Agent and confirmed the plan of liquidation of any open positions and cancelling of any open orders for the Account; ii) notified the ADMIS Support Desk of this revocation; and, iii) removed all access the Agent has to trade for, or act on behalf of, this Account. The broker will arrange to have the account closed.

X _____

Date: _____

Print Name: _____

OFFICE NO.: _____